

Sierra Gold Quilter's Guild
Business Meeting Minuets
August 13, 2013

The meeting was called to order at 10:03AM by Lannie Staniford with board member, Schatzi Brimer and filling in for Sarah Hart, Michelle Jones. Joan Costello was not in attendance. The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by Michelle Jones.

Introduction of Visitors: Aretta Hampton introduced Terrie Van Saylor, a member of Mother Lode Quilters. Louise Myers introduced Susan Ayer, a new member of our Guild.

Announcements: Mary Foster announced a fund raiser for Lung Cancer. See her for info and to buy tickets. Sherry Robinson gave info on Camp Out for Cancer. Will be September 7th at the Plymouth Fair Grounds from 9 - 5. Sherry thanked all the Guild members who donated projects to sell. Vicki Bray announced that the Amador Farmer's Market is having a dinner 9/29/2013 at the Hewing Winery. See Vicki for tickets and info.

Reminders: Lannie Staniford reminded us to car pool if possible, wear your name tags or pay $.50. The Goldfingers meet after the Guild Meeting, and show and tell quilts, please display in the training room.

Minutes: Michelle Jones read the minutes from the Board Meeting, July 11, 2013. The minuets were corrected by Lannie Staniford. Michelle Jones also stumbled though the the minutes of the Business Meeting, July 9, 2013 and they were accepted as read.

Treasure's Report: Schatzi Brimer presented the July, 2013 Financial Statement showing an ending balance of $11,148.27.

VP Report: Schatzi Brimer, substituting for Joan Costello, reviewed the up coming August, September, November, January and February classes. Those of you who are taking Lura Schwatz Smith's "Transforming Traditionals", can get a supply list or any other information from Joan Costello via email, as she is not available by phone at this time.

Committee Reports:

County Fair: Penny Dominici thanked those who worked at the fair. Not all spots were filled, so some worked double shifts. $739 was made selling Opportunity Quilt Tickets.

Library: Sheila Jorstad thanked everyone for returning books. She found a hand out on “Needles” and made copies for any one who would like it.

Quilt Show: Pat Bjerke requested volunteers to take flyers to various businesses. She also announced that there was an article about Cookie Braunschweig, our featured quilter, in the Ledger.

Sue Green announced that all quilt forms were due today. Some sent pictures of their quilts via email, they also need forms filled out as well. Julie Broderson will be doing the Entry Cards, so if you wish to email her your descriptions of your quilts, it would make her job easier. Not many people are completing the form with the Vignettes they plan to provide. Plan to set up something to accent your quilt. Anita McGee-Hunt has some things that can be used, but needs small tables. Please email her if you have a small table that can be used. Sue announce that the sign up sheets were available this meeting for sign up to help with the Quilt Show. Aieleen Parker needs people with SUV’s to help transport items for the Country Store on Thursday. Please notify her if you can help.

Hospitality: Hilde Langlet has the sign up sheets for refreshments. Was pleased with the amount of food today. All Quilt Show windows are now allocated.

Gift Baskets for the Quilt Show: Barb Miller needs baskets and items for the baskets by next meeting. She also needs people to help wrap the baskets.

Membership: Louise Myers would like those members who haven’t picked up their Rosters, to pick them up now.

Quilt Show Signs: Barbara Garcia has signs advertising the Quilt Show. She is requesting those members who live in exposed public areas, or know someone who is willing to post a sign, to take a sign and post it with in the next two weeks.

Show and Tell: Members shared their latest projects.

Raffle: Margie Marshall showed all the Raffle prizes and the raffle was held.

Old Business: There was no old business.

New Business: Mary Foster informed the Guild that Libby Lehman, a well known quilter, has had a stroke and in currently in rehab. There is a concern of the amount of the hospital bills. Currently Tim and Alex web site has a way to donate. Mary was requesting that the Guild send a donation. The Board will evaluate. Currently all donations that are budgeted, have been made. It was also suggested that a jar be bought next meeting to pass around.

Sunshine Committee: Mary Holder announced that it was Betty Ostin's 80th Birthday today.

"Mini" Quilt Show: All the quilts/items that won a ribbon at the Amador County Fair and the California State Fair were displayed. It was announced by Sylvia Bird that those who did not get their critique, can call the Fair office and have it mailed to them.

Mini Quilt Show: Next month please bring your favorite quilt.

The business meeting was adjourned at 11:45PM.