OPPORTUNITY QUILT-Mary Foster

Tickets will be sold at the Amador County Fair. She reminded us to pick up our tickets. Mary attended 'Empty Spools' this year where she did a Show n' Tell with our Opportunity Quilt.

She also thanked members for making chemo cap kits.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Quilt Show-Louise Myers asked for a chairman for the workers' lunch for the quilt show set-up and asked for any finished paper pieced inserts for the cards.

Country Store-Anita McGee-Hunt thanked those who came to the cutting party. For the August workshop, they will be putting together packets and kits.

Small Quilt Auction-Kathy Scott asked for more quilts by Sept.1 and showed some that had been turned in but had no names attached.

Challenge-Hilde Langlet has more information sheets and forms will be available in July to fill out and return if you plan on making one.

Community Quilts

Janis and Kathy Beach will have info on making fidget quilts and samples next month. Some items that could be used on them are pipe fittings, textured fabrics, Velcro and can be as small as a fat quarter. Anita said she has a can of buttons to donate for use on them. Janis and Kathy attended a Hospice luncheon where they received a certificate for our donations.

Sue Green said challenge quilts and show entries should be returned in August. Also, that we have no quilts to donate to organizations if requested.

Melissa has the sign-up sheet for the Fair workers.

OLD BUSINESS

Sue Green reported that the storage unit inventory has been done and nothing necessary for the quilt show is missing. She also found some Sierra Gold canvas bags in storage that she brought to the meeting and members may purchase for $2 and free to new members.

RAFFLE

Hilde went over the items for the drawing plus the free class jar.

ROUND ROBIN

About a dozen members showed tops; two were held for the drawing next month. The remaining tops were exchanged with other participating members.

Sue reminded members of the demos at the break with Sam and herself and to visit the library in the back room.

Ulla Van Gerrevink offered to chair the workers lunch.

BREAK 11:08 a.m.

SHOW & TELL

Members showed their items then Sue reminded us of the need for community quilts as she showed numerous ones she had made. Melissa showed a no-slip machine foot holder made with shelf liner that could be made for the country store or for yourself.

Kathy Scott said we have a vendor for the quilt show coming from Hawaii.

Sue reminded members to bring a snack for the meeting of their birthday.

The Raffle was done.

Sue asked for help setting the room for the workshop tomorrow. There will be a board meeting after adjournment for those interested.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:28 a.m.
