MINUTES

The Minutes on the web site for July and August were approved.

TREASURE REPORT

The ending balance as of August 31, 2017 was $12,354.61.

VICE PRESIDENT-Penny Dominici

1. Kits for the President quilt for Sue Green are available. They include a hand print pattern and a blue fabric square for the background. Decorated as desired and include your name.
2. Tomorrow is the applique workshop with Nancy Brown. There will be a longer lunch break during the class to give those attending the service for Ellen Dambacher extra time. Kathy Scott will have a card for members to sign at the church.
3. The November 15th class is with Inger Blood. You will need a ruler foot for your machine. Rulers will be available to buy at the class.
4. Penny introduced our speaker, Nancy Brown.

PROGRAM

Nancy Brown presented us with an entertaining slide and trunk show.

Sue Green gave us reminders for the break including that our quilt numbers for the show were available on the back table.

RAFFLE-Hilde Langlet

Hilde reviewed the items for the raffle.

BREAK

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Opportunity Quilt-Mary Foster

Mary reminded us to sign up for working the table at the show and that you can turn in quilt tickets there if you didn't today.

The quilt will be on display at Anelie's studio in Martell.

Mary also reminded us that chemo cap kits were available.

COUNTRY STORE-Anita McGee-Hunt

She needs people to help set up and sign up to work at the show.

ROUND ROBIN-Pat Bjerke

Pat asked participants to leave tops with her to display in a window at the show. She also asked if you have a décor item to go with your quilt at the show to put your quilt number and name on it and bring it to setup day.

WINDOWS-Mary Ann Engelbrekton

She has a few flyer holders for your window.

Sue Farrington is preparing brochures for the show.

FEATURED QUILTER

Due to Joan Smith's husband's illness, Julie Broderson will take her place at the show as Featured Quilter.

CHALLENGE QUILTS-Hilde Langlet

Hilde said that numbers for your challenge quilt are on Sue's quilt numbers list. Turn them in on Oct. 4th.

ADVERTISING-Barbara Garcia

Postcards are available to spread around the community. Many of the wineries have them.

SMALL QUILT AUCTION-Kathy Scott

Kathy has more than 50 quilts but will take more. She also added that the library display is up through September.

She also said that the Board of Supervisors have Bi-Centennial quilts on permanent display in the county building.

Penny Dominici asked for quilts done from guild classes so they may be displayed in a window at the quilt show.

She needs white glove sign ups.

The hourly winners at the show will be posted in both buildings.

QUILT SHOW CHAIRMEN

Louise Myers asked if there were any consignments for the Country Store and said that the guild receives 20% of the sale.

Erika Clark reported that there is a need for workers to sign up to work the gift basket table.

Debby Sweeten

1. Those donating Auction Quilts do not need to pay to get them back if they don't sell.
2. Vendors set up on Thursday at 12:00p.m.
3. Penny Dominici will set up the sound system.
4. Sign up forms are on the back tables for the show committees.
5. She will send out a special newsletter with show information.
6. Committee chairmen will use their list as reminders to workers.
7. Wear your name tags at the show when you're working.
8. She has the raffle baskets if you have any last minute donations.

Sue Green reminded us that set up is Wednesday and turn your quilts in between 1:00 and 4:00 that day.

SHOW & TELL

RAFFLE-Hilde Langlet

Sue Green asked for those interested in being on the opportunity quilt committee for 2019 to tell her.

She will have a meeting at her house on Sept. 26th for the budget committee, Barb Miller, Hilde Langlet, Kathy Scott and Sue.

LIBRARY-Pat Bjerke

Books are not being checked out and maybe not it's not necessary to have the library. Questions if they could be donated to the Country Store or let members pick. Valerie Bonkowske suggested members donate $1.00 for their choice. Perhaps do that at the Christmas meeting with the donations going to the Food Bank. To be decided.

Sue Green called for a nominating committee for new board members, except for Penny Dominici who will remain as Vice President. Committee will be, Pat Carr, Kathy Scott and Lousie Myers.

Penny Dominici reminded everyone attending tomorrow's class that it will start at 8:30 a.m. to give the extra time for the longer lunch.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:15p.m.
